

DR. CLYDE B. LIPSCOMB ENDOWED CHAIR
FOR EXCELLENCE IN INSTRUCTION SUPPORTING NURSING EDUCATION

Purpose

This award recognizes a faculty member who has made and continues to make outstanding contributions to student's wishing to become nurses. Faculty from all disciplines contributing to the A.A.S and A.S. in nursing are eligible.

Eligibility

Full-time faculty. Joint proposals will not be reviewed or awarded.

Application

The application portfolio must include:

- A brief (no more than three double-spaced pages) narrative description of a project that has been undertaken by faculty in support of nursing education and include supporting evidence regarding the project's impact in the following categories:
 - Innovation in areas such as teaching, recruiting, retention or training.
- Letters of support from three people who have worked with the candidate. The letters submitted will be from the following:
 - One student
 - One coworker
 - One community member
- The candidate's curriculum vitae

Application Submission

Application portfolio will be submitted to the Office of the Associate Vice President of Liberal Arts annually. Specific timelines will be announced each fall semester.

Nominating Committee

The nominating committee consists of faculty members appointed by the Executive Vice President for Instruction & Student Services working in cooperation with The Center for the Advancement of Teaching and Learning.

Award

- $1,000
- For those who put forth a presentation proposal, to the National Institute for Staff and Organizational Development (NISOD) conference costs will be paid for by the College. The proposal does not have to be accepted.
- Recognition during convocation the year in which the award is given.